

Fiskeville, R.I., February 06, 2019 – Sihl Group announced today that Stephanie MacLeod has been appointed to Sihl Inc’s Board of Directors. MacLeod, Sihl Inc’s Chief Financial Officer, has been with Sihl Inc. and its predecessor companies since 1998 and she was promoted to CFO in 2014.

Chris McInerney will remain CEO of Sihl Inc., the Sihl Group’s North American subsidiary. McInerney has served as CEO North America and Managing Director, responsible for day-to-day operations at the Rhode Island based company since 2015. McInerney has successfully led a resurgence of the Sihl Group’s North American business having increased revenues by over 35% and profitability by a significant degree during his tenure.

“Sihl Group has great confidence in Chris and Stephanie’s excellent leadership qualities and we are proud of the improvements in the business. We are happy to have both Chris and Stephanie on board and are very confident to further grow Sihl’s North American business under their leadership.” said Sihl Group’s board of directors.

For more information on Sihl Inc, or the complete Sihl product lineup, please visit www.sihlinc.com.